

KNOW YOUR CUSTOMER

The 15-Minute Customer Understanding Worksheet

STOP GUESSING.

Start listening to what your customer actually wants.

Use this worksheet for ONE product, service or offer at a time.

If you don't know an answer, write: NEED TO FIND OUT.

Meet the person behind the purchase.

Don't create a perfect avatar. Create a useful picture of a real customer.

THE OFFER

Product / Service / Offer

AGE RANGE

What age group are you mainly serving?

LOCATION

Where do they live, work or operate?

OCCUPATION / BUSINESS

What do they do?

LIFE / BUSINESS STAGE

Starting, growing, changing, struggling, established?

What does a typical day look like for them?

QUICK TIP

Focus on what affects their decisions, priorities and problems — not random demographic details.

What's going on in their world?

This is where you move from 'who they are' to 'what they are experiencing'.

RIGHT NOW...

"Right now, my customer is..."

THE PROBLEM

What is the biggest problem they want to solve?

How does this problem affect them?

What happens if they don't solve it?

Don't stop at the obvious answer.

Keep asking 'why?' until you understand what the outcome really means to them.

THEY SAY...

"I want _____."

WHY?

WHY DOES THAT MATTER TO THEM?

WHAT DOES THAT ULTIMATELY GIVE THEM?

THE DEEPER REASON I DISCOVERED

QUICK TIP The deeper reason often gives you better marketing language than the surface-level goal.

Before you, what did they do?

Your customer has probably tried something already. Find out what.

CHECK WHAT APPLIES

- | | |
|---|--|
| ☐ DIY | ☐ FREE CONTENT |
| ☐ COMPETITORS | ☐ COURSES / PROGRAMS |
| ☐ AGENCIES / EXPERTS | ☐ FRIENDS / RECOMMENDATIONS |
| ☐ OTHER | |

What didn't work for them?

Why might they still be looking for a solution?

 FRUSTRATION 1

 FRUSTRATION 2

 FRUSTRATION 3

 FRUSTRATION 4

What makes them hesitate?

Interest doesn't always become action. Find the barrier.

POSSIBLE BARRIERS

☐ PRICE☐ TRUST☐ TIME☐ FEAR OF WASTING MONEY☐ PAST BAD EXPERIENCE☐ CONFUSION☐ NOT SURE IT WILL WORK☐ WANTS TO DO IT THEMSELVES☐ NOT READY YET

Their biggest objection might be:

" _____ "

What would they need to know to feel more confident?

WHY WOULD THEY ACT NOW?

Use their words. Not yours.

Check DMs, reviews, comments, WhatsApp chats, sales calls and competitor reviews.

CUSTOMER LANGUAGE

EXACT PHRASE #1

Write the customer's actual words here...

EXACT PHRASE #2

Write the customer's actual words here...

EXACT PHRASE #3

Write the customer's actual words here...

EXACT PHRASE #4

Write the customer's actual words here...

EXACT PHRASE #5

Write the customer's actual words here...

QUICK TIP

Real customer language can become your best hooks, headlines, FAQs and ad copy.

Put everything together.

If you can complete this page clearly, you know a lot more about your customer than before.

WHO?

Who is this customer?

PROBLEM?

What main problem are they trying to solve?

DESIRE?

What result do they want?

WHY?

Why is that result important to them?

BARRIER?

What might stop them from buying?

TRIGGER?

What could make them act now?

THEIR WORDS?

What exact words do they use?

NOW TURN THE INSIGHT INTO ACTION

One customer problem I can create content about: _____

One objection I should address: _____

One customer phrase I could use in my marketing: _____

Before you close this worksheet...

Tick what you can confidently answer. Anything unclear becomes your next research question.

- ☐ I know who I'm talking to.
- ☐ I understand their current situation.
- ☐ I know what they actually want.
- ☐ I know why they want it.
- ☐ I understand their biggest frustration.
- ☐ I know what they've already tried.
- ☐ I know what might stop them from buying.
- ☐ I have their actual words.
- ☐ I have evidence for my assumptions.
- ☐ I know what I need to find out next.

ONE FINAL QUESTION

“Would my customer feel like
I'm talking TO them — or ABOUT my product?”

IF YOU'RE STILL GUESSING...

Go back to the customer. Ask another question. Read another review.

Keep listening. Keep observing. Keep updating.